STANFORD, KY.

Friday Morning, - August 12, 1881

W. F. WALTON, - - - Editor

THE Virginia Democrats, in Convention last Friday in Richmond, nominated Hon. John W. Daniel for Governor, James Harlors for Lt.-Governor and P. W. McKinney for Attorney General, and adopted a platform urging the maintenance of the public credit of the State, condemning repudiation in every shape and form as a blot upon her honor, a blow at her permanent welfare and an obstacle to her progress in wealth, influence and power, and pledging every effort to secure a settlement of the debt of the State which is consistent with her honor and just to her creditors. This question is the all-important one now. The firm stand that the Democracy has taken on it must be a source of pride to honest people everywhere. It shows that there are still men, and a large number of them, in the Old Dominion who would place the dear old State from the disgrace of repudiation into which the thieving crowd of Mahonians would plunge her; men who will go forth to battle for her honor and win, if it is more than probable premeditated, come out victorious. The election of John W. Daniel is a happy one. Young, gifted, chivalrous, brave and honorable, we are confident that notwithstanding the fact that there will be three tickets in the field, he will be elected, for our faith in the integrity of a large majority of the people of the State is strong and abiding. An orator Daniel has hit few equals, a fact that is recognized since his matchless speech at the Cincinnati Convention preceding the nomination of Gen. Hancock.

There are a great many ways for people now to get into political no man's land with an aim that shall not be attained. A bystander, thinking to obtain a little cheap notoriety or simply knocked him down. The knocker was arrested and fined. The Comptroller heard of the matter and straightway it advertises that it would print the names of any one sending a cent to pay the fine. It is pleasant here to see and make in print, as Byron on one occasion remarked, and such a cheap chance, now, that is hardly over, happening before to shine in painter's ink, 30,000 people have already sent their names and contributions, none over one cent. Several columns of the paper is dedicated each day to those names, to the exclusion of most interesting matter, and the proprietors get their money back by selling copies of the paper to each contributor, who carefully peruses the column as far down as his name. Truly over are but children of a larger growth, and from the cradle to the grave, are plucked with a rattle and tied with a straw.

GENERAL CHALMERS, fearing that his show of success in the contest between him and the negro for his former seat in Congress, has entered the ring as Greenback candidate for United States Senator from Mississippi against Lamar. His reason for doing this is that he expects to be elected but to gain the votes of the Greenbackers of the House to help him in his seat. A great change must have come over the spirit of his dreams, for about a year ago we heard him make a speech in which he denounced the Greenbackers as allies of the Republicans. But consistency is a jewel unknown to the average politician.

The Mountain Echo asks us if we have found out whether Judge Turner had any opposition in Madison or not? It rather appears on the face of the return's that he had, and of the most sneaking kind. After making a still hunt round and getting his negroes and others trained, your candidates announced himself just two days before the election, when he knew Turner would have no chance to speak against him. Well, our tricks that are vain and for duds that are none, the Indians are indeed peculiar.

The Breckinridge News scores it into Secretary of State Blackburn because he failed to send the act authorizing a vote on the question of calling a Constitutional Convention in time for publication in many of the papers in which it should have appeared. It wants the next Legislature to impeach him. We expect it would be a good idea for both the party and the State. There are several too many Blackburns in office. In fact, all except Joe could be dispensed with.

The President has suffered another infarct, and although the bulletin of the attending physician says that he is better, his condition must be very critical with his pulse 100 beats a minute. He is now in a feverish condition, and is, I believe, dying. We are told that his mind has been made up to meet the accumulated strain, which the Doctors claimed was unusual.

We trust an impudent who would have reflected cleft on the devil, James H. Arnold, "the great untho," called on the Governor this week to solicit a pardon for his brother, Ike, in jail at Nicholashville. He had no idea that he would be refused, but then there are things that even blacks here dare not do.

HENRY WHITE, who is charged with stealing bonds from the vault of the Fayette National Bank, has been, in a manner, vindicated. Warner & Tidwell, railroad contractors, have employed him as paymaster for their hands. We have not heard, however, what the hands have to say about it.

Dr. TANNER, the fastidious, is preparing to fast for many days, and is confident that he can do it if allowed to feed on alcohol. We hope to hear that this man has shamed off his mortal coil early in the action.

The State of Michigan, Rhode Island, Maine and Wisconsin have abolished capital punishment. Kentucky has virtually done so, too, except with an occasional negro or a very poor white man.

The editors of the Journal will continue to get their drinks on the sly. Local option carried again in Richmond. This is bad on the senior and just too sensible a fault for the junior.

After twenty-nine ballots the Democrats of Mississippi nominated General Robert Lowry, a prominent lawyer, for Governor, and G. D. Edwards for Lt.-Governor.

Below is the return of the Senatorial election as reported by the Sheriff of the various counties composing the District, who met here on Monday:

COUNTIES.	VOTES.	PERCENT.
Benton	704	22%
Boone	698	19%
Brown	971	30%
Calvert	1020	31%
Total	2773	100%

In the race between Mr. R. C. Warren and Col. Adams, the former received a majority of 218 on a vote in the Senatorial District of 4,167 for himself and 2,847 for Adams. It will be seen that in the late election the Democratic vote was 991 less in 1880, and the Republican 415. Had the same vote been polled as then, Clarke would have gone in by a good majority.

The Republicans of Virginia were in Convention at Lynchburg, yesterday, but after much wrangling and numerous abatements of loud blood, failed to decide whether they will nominate a ticket of their own or go into a thriving coalition with Mahone, with the project favoring the latter course. If Virginia repudiates her debt, it will be because of Republican support and connivance.

"LATHIN'S" father, the Rev. Alfred Townsend, a Methodist minister, died in Philadelphia, last week, and the man-of-all-work conundrum suggests itself. Why, oh! why, was not George Alfred taken?

HARRISON BAILEY, Esq., an honored ex-Lincolnite, was elected to the Legislature in Shelby county after a hotly contested fight by 296 majority.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

Judge Garrett's majority in the 16th District is 210.

Gov. Crittenden has offered $30,000 reward for the Missouri trial robbers.

The first sale of new cotton received at Memphis was sold at auction for 25 cents a pound.

Mr. Emma Smith, for Circuit Clerk of LaRue, beat John W. Moran 265 votes.

Some twenty freight cars, in the L. & N. at Louisville, caught fire Tuesday, and eight were entirely consumed.

The war in Eastern passenger rates put them down last Monday to about 50¢ each from Indianapolis to New York.

Gen. Hancock has forwarded to Secretary Lincoln his acceptance of the invitation to command the troops at the Yorktown celebration.

North Carolina voted a few days ago on prohibition, and by a majority of 70,000 determined to continue to make and take sugar in them.

Maine contributed only $2,457.05 to support the Federal government last year, while Kentucky paid $8,719,162.21. Vermont's amount was $33,000.

The Richmond & Allegheny Road has just been completed from Richmond, Va., to a point on the Chesapeake & Ohio Road, distant 146 miles, called Clifton Forge.

Southern representatives are arguing that Hon. J. Randolph Turker, of Virginia, was appointed to the vacancy in the U. S. Supreme Court, caused by the death of Judge Clifford.

Trust-burying is said to be progressing finely on the Big Sandy. It is, and the prospect is that trials will be running from Mt. Sterling to the Chesapeake Bay by the Yorktown Centennial in October.

The last General Assembly of Kentucky changed the time of meeting from the last Monday in December to the fourth Monday in November. The legislature will, therefore, meet November 28th.—[Courier-Journal].

Orville Grant, only brother to ex-President Grant, died Friday in a New Jersey insane Asylum. He lost a fortune of $100,000 by the Chicago fire, and for five years he had been crazy on the subject of speculations.

Mrs. Ballard, of Clarke county, who has been so badly afflicted with rheumatism for eleven years that she has not walked a step in all that time, went to Pink Cottage three weeks ago, and she can now walk about a little.

—Venerable we may expect a great change in weather about the time the new comet is in perihelion. This will occur on the 20th of the present month. During the week of the 15th to the 20th, instead of being burnt up, as many expect, we shall be nearly frozen by frosty and cold northern winds.

The Richmond & Allegheny Railroad Syndicate has purchased the aster-power of the city of Manchester, opposite Richmond, Va. The price paid was $200,000.

The purchasers intend to develop the manufacturing resources of the place, and will begin at once the erection of cotton mills and other factories.

A special from the Pine Ridge Agency,

Nevada, says: "Crown Dog, the Captain of Police at the Household Agency, shot and instantly killed Spotted Tail about 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. There had been an ill-feeling between them for some time. Crown Dog went to Fort Niobrara to remain until further developments. Trouble is anticipated."

Nathan Orlando Greenfield, who has had three trials, has been sentenced three times to be hanged, and has always been reprieved, was hanged at Syracuse, Saturday. The opinion that prevailed in the Court and out of them all through this litigation, was that he killed his wife, and there was nobody left who disagreed with the verdict.

At Corbinville, Mercer county, last Saturday, Higgins and Brown, who had agreed to disagree and never speak to each other again, met in a low bar-room. Huffman spoke to Brown, who immediately drew his pistol and killed him. Brown then started to go out, but a pistol shot from a brother of Huffman laid him out forever. Brown had just recovered from a six weeks' illness.

Two of the F. F. V.'s fellows and "fit" in Petersburg, the other day, because one refused to drink with the other. Lee, the man who wanted to taste, snuffed Green, a kid who didn't want to be treated, three times, which Green allowed him to do. Then Lee snuffed the fourth time. Green drew his pistol and shot Lee. Lee, after being shot, jumped on three and stabbed him in the throat. Leathed about five minutes after Green. Green died a few minutes after Lee.

CASTRO COUNTY.

LIBERTY.

Lincoln county is Republican by 88, She has lost her Democratic pride. Mr. A. O. Watkins and Miss Sarah A. Petrina were married on the 6th inst.

Geo. E. Stone has gone to Russell county on professional business....Miss Prentiss Spraggins, one of Lincoln's fairies, flowers, is the great of Miss Maggie Allen this week.

The official vote of this county is as follows: For Treasurer—Tate, 832; For Senator—Clark, (Dem) 767; Blain, (Rep) 699; For Representative—Johnson, (Dem) 741; Thomas, (Rep) 675; For Assessor—Smith, (Dem) 643; Cochran, (Rep) 529.

The darkies had a clanging picnic at the fall of the river, just above town, last Saturday. There were lots of dinner, and a large crowd in attendance. The dancing was enjoyed by all and was very amusing to any one not in the habit of seeing darkies dance.

Elder W. L. Williams informs us that Mr. Duncan, Sunday School evangelist for Kentucky, will hold a Sunday School Institute at Middleburg, beginning the 5th of September, at night, and continuing three days. He will also hold an Institute at Liberty, beginning the 8th of September, at night, and continuing three days.

The ninth annual meeting of the Casey county Teachers' Institute began last Monday morning, the 9th of August. The Institute was organized at 1 o'clock, p.m., with the following officers: B. F. Branson, School Superintendent; Pres; C. S. Adams, Vice-Pres; B. T. Raikes Sec; Robt. Earle, Asst. Sec; S. M. Williams, C. W. Jones, Miss Bell Bastin, Committees on Programs. Forty-eight teachers present; Prof. George A. Yates delivered an opening address on the "Educational Problem." "How to Teach Reading" was discussed by quite a number of the teachers present. The visitors present were made honorary members of the Institute, after which they adjourned until to-morrow (Tuesday) morning. The programs for the remaining four days is very interesting. Among other things we notice that Prof. J. D. Adams is to be heard on Grammar.

PELLETIER COUNTY. Monticello.

We have been favored, within the last day or two, with copious showers in various parts of the country, but have had none as yet in this immediate vicinity.

The continuous drought of three to four weeks has proved disastrous to growing corn crops; but we have hopes that the rain will be sufficient to save the crop.

—Farmers are having their wheat crops threshed now. As was predicted early in the season, the crop will not turn out more than one-third of the ordinary yield. Consequently our county will have but little surplus for foreign markets this season. One dollar per bushel is being paid for what is changing hands.

—As is usual, after a closely contested political campaign, our county is anxious to know the result since the election. Mr. Rankin received 67 majority over his closest competitor for Representative, and he is a native Scotshman. Senator Beck will have nothing to fear from his opposition.

—Our drug stores, having been out of morphine for several days, develops the fact that quite a number of our citizens are addicted to the habit of using that drug to excess. Some of them are using it in fearful large quantities.

—After a lively contest between the friends of Professor Sewall and Bradshaw, the Trustees of the Academy have decided to give the house to Prof. S. who will begin his school the first Monday in September. He is an able minister of the Christian church, a ripe scholar and an efficient educator, and we trust will succeed in building up a permanent school of a high order in our midst. He proposes associating Prof. Tobias Hulker with him after the close of the public schools this Fall. Prof. H. has just graduated with high honors in the Columbia Christian College, and well spoken of as a scholar and close student, end besides, in a preacher of much promise, considering his age.

—As the following anecdotes have been going the rounds in this county for a long time, and have caused many a hearty laugh by those acquainted with the particularities of the law, we will relate them. We wanted to sell our mare and only wanted $45 for her, which amount was considered by our judges of horseflesh much less than she was really worth. Mr. Paston's actions were rather suspicious, and finally he exhibited a pistol which he had bolted around him. Judge McClure arrested him and informed him that it was "against the law" to carry pistols in that style, at which information Mr. Paston expressed his surprise. He was turned over to the tender mercies of the Grand Jury and that body promptly reported an indictment against him. He was tried the same evening, and his punishment fixed at the usual $25 fine and ten days in jail. Mr. Paston went into prison to satisfy that portion of the judgment, and an execution was levied on his mare to pay the fine and costs.

—Drunkenness—On the 6th inst., at his residence in this county, of paralysis, Judge McClure, an old, useful and highly respected citizen....On the same day, Wm. H. Weston, an old blind man, long a citizen of this county and well known to most everybody along the line of the Knoxville Branch Railroad, died of a complication of troubles. He had just returned from a visit to Link Cottage, where he had gone hoping for a respite of his sight....The inhabitants of our little village were greatly startled and grieved at the most profound sorrow last Saturday evening by the announcement that Mrs. C. A. Reid, wife of one of our prominent merchants, had been found dead in her bed. She had been ill for a long time, but was feeling better than usual when she rallied the night before. She was a victim of heart disease. Mrs. Reid was a most estimable lady, greatly esteemed by all that knew her. She leaves two children, Gladie and Maggie, who, together with the bereaved husband and father, have the sympathy of the community in their affliction....At his residence on Clear Creek in this county, of cancer, at the age of nine years, and has ever since resided here. He was married June 11th, 1846, and lived happily until the death of his wife, March 14, 1860. He joined the Christian Church in 1840, and remained a constant and devoted member until his death. He was a most excellent citizen, upright, industrious, honest and generous. He has been a kind man that few men possess a kinder heart than Wm. A. Reid, and certainly no man ever had more completely the confidence and respect of all his acquaintances. He was the father of W. H. Reid, now Sheriff of our county. Five other children survive him. May he rest in peace and lightly lie the earth above him.

—Dr. Leo Harrison and family, of Paris,

Tenn., are spending the summer North in consequence of ill health. While on his way from Albany to Cumberland Falls, a few days ago, he was so prostrated by the heat that he has been confined at the Harrison home here since, but is now improving....Mrs. Eliza Edmonson, of Stanford, and children, are visiting at her father's in this place....Miss Lina Owens is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Miller....Mr. J. Jones, also of Lincoln, has been with us several days....Mrs. Eliza Jones has recently been married to a man from Madison county....Mrs. Eliza Baker and Willie Gregg will start to-day on a visit to Adair County.

Mt. Vernon Department.

SAM. M. BURDETT, Editor.

The people have grown tired of sonorous weapons and illicit whisky. Both these evils must be blotted out.

John Bennett's official majority for the Senate is 130. The official majority of Parker, for Representatives in the two counties, is 144.

John J. K. McClary has returned from Hot Springs greatly improved in health.

He is warmly greeted by his many friends who have long hoped for his recovery.

—Though there was a large crowd in town last Monday, there was very little drinking and everybody was sober and well-behaved. Good humor prevailed universally. It would be hard to find two lots of men, more clean, sober and intelligent than the two bodies constituting the juries.

as a young lady among the "Gypsies" warning for his amusement. Now we can't afford to strike.

For three mortal hours we were detained, and still no prospect of escape. Three young men, devout and pious, held an impromptu prayer meeting. Then a radio-raft was constructed, and one most daring and chivalrous youth embarked and floated down the river over a mile in a shelf. The majority of the crowd was landed on a desert island. A blazing fire was built, and we hoisted a smoke signal, chanted hymns, sang psalms, and recited the Lord's Prayer.

—There are, at least, three dogs to evict inhabitants in Mt. Vernon. They are a set of lazy, worthless curs and near men. They manifest their presence until bed-time. Then they howl until day time.

—The Kentucky Central Railroad has had recorded in our County Court Ulcer's office a mortgage to a New York Banking

Company for $4,000,000. This looks like the auctioneer would be made into our county.

Miss HARRIET COOK, of Cleveland, Ohio, is at Mr. J. H. Warren's.

Miss JAMES BOYD, of Lebanon, is with her brother, Mr. Joe Horner.

Miss AGNES BOYD, of Lebanon, is a guest of her uncle, James Horner.

Miss MARY LEE, of Lexington, is at the McElroberts residence.

Miss Jessie TAYLOR and Mrs. Nannie Johnson, of Paris, are with friends here.

—JAMES J. BROWN, the popular minstrel of the Napier Hotel, Liberty, was here yesterday.

—We are indebted to Prof. ABRAHAM HAGEN, who is now in New York, for a budget of the daily papers of Europe.

—Miss MARY COOK, former Faculty at Westover, greatly to the regret of all who met them. They are now visiting Miss R. A. Lyons at Bluegrass, Woodford county.

—Mr. J. H. COOKE, of Hill, Mary, Tenn., is here this week, as visitor in the McElroberts' home. He takes his hat off to all who meet him. They are now visiting Miss R. A. Lyons at Bluegrass, Woodford county.

—A LITTLE boy from Pulaski came into our office this week and said to us "Mister, do you charge anything to put anybody's name in the paper?" We told him there was no charge for a simple personal mention when he remained so long and asked so many questions. "Well, I suppose, that's me, to visiting my aunt, Miss Mary Warren." They all left it—the little boy came in again.

LOCAL MATTERS.

New Fall Falcio at McAllister & Lytle's.

Extra lot of Baby Carriages at R. H. Weller's.

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD WHISKY for medical purposes at the St. Asaph Her.

HARD & NUSSLER have taken the agency for the celebrated Davis Sewing Machine.

Bird line of Cowan & Storer's celebrated Buffalo Soap, just received by Hale & Nusslely.

J. T. HAGINS informs us that he has a good lot of beavers in traps, and will commence butchering in September.

—Mr. D. WEAREN received, this week, another carload of nice Huggies, Carriages and Pictures. Call and see them. Prices low.

—I WILL be prepared in due season to furnish farmers with the very best varieties of Seed Wheat and Rye. Make a note of this. Geo. D. Wearen.

NOTHING helps a Theatrical Company more than a gentlemanly Advance Agent, and in their selection Richmond & McElreth are particularly fortunate. Mr. U. J. Warner is an ideally pleasant.

WHERE is HE?—Where is Lieut. T. J. Bennett? When last heard from he was in Northwestern Indiana, near Indianapolis. Information of him will be thankfully received by hisaged mother, now lying at the point of death. Address, W. E. Sutherland, Highland, Lincoln county, Ky.

As Mr. W. D. ALEXANDER was driving with his family to Hill Springs yesterday, the holding back straps of his harness broke and allowed the vehicle to run upon the horse, which began to kick furiously. The shafts were broken, the dash knocked off, and a pretty general wreck made. Fortunately, nobody was seriously hurt.

THE Richmond & McElreth Dramatic Company, thus which there are no better or the worst, rendered "Divorce" and "Hazel Kirk" at our Opera House this week to highly delighted audiences, judging from the hearty applause and favorable comments. While both performances were of a superior character, "Hazel Kirk" could hardly have been surpassed on. Harry Richmond, as "Dunstan Kirk," the blind miller, gave as fine a piece of acting as we ever saw, while Miss Alice Irving, who favored with beauty as well as accomplishments, was a charming representation of the wayward though loving "Hazel Kirk." The "Titantic Queen" of Mr. R. B. McElreth showed his full skillities as a comedian, and won for him many a hearty laugh. The rest of the Company was much above the average, making the whole entertainment a thoroughly enjoyable one. The orchestra is also deserving of praise, as it was of the hearty applause that it received. We had an better behaved nor finer party of ladies and gentlemen as composed this troupe, and it gives us pleasure to testify to their merits. A crowded house will doubtless greet them on their return Monday night next (15th), when they will appear for one night only, before leaving for the South, in the beautiful city of "Ingomar the Barbarian."

CALL and see George D. Warren's new Wheat Drill.

Batch of Banana Mill Flour just received by Hale & Nusslely.

A steady rain fell on Saturday evening last, scarcely sufficient to lay the dust.

MISS MAMIE PORTMAN would like to have three foot music scholars. Apply to her at A. A. Warren's.

SHREVE, PHILIPS & HAMILTON's celebrated circus and manager will be here on the 23d. It takes 36 cars in haul, so look out for something grand.

STROKES.—From Ilio, T. McElroberts' night, a boy mare, 5 years old, 16 hands high, white hind foot and hoof. Any information gratefully received, A. J. Preston.

MANY thanks have we received for utilizing the readers of this paper to purchase clothes for themselves or boys from J. Winter & Co., our Third and Market streets, Louisville. They told us that this firm was the squarest and fairest in Louisville.

ARM BROKEN.—Mrs. J. M. Mohr, living near town, had both bones of her arm broken on Tuesday last, by a fall from her door step to the brick pavement below. Dr. Bronough was called to reset the member, and she is now getting on very well.

"INGOMAR," one of the most popular and enterprising plays, will be given at the Opera House on Monday night, August 13th, by the Richmond & McElreth Combination. If you want to see the acting, splendid costumes, and listen to excellent music, you will not fail to be pleased.

THE OLD-MAID PALETTES sold by McElroberts & Stagg are the best sold—our guarantee is every particular.

LAWYERS OF ALL KINDS FOR SALE AT THE INTERIOR JOURNAL OFFICE. Clerks, Sheriffs, Magistrates and Constables will save money by giving no answer.

HARD & NUSSLER have all kinds of Produce.

Inox, Boxes and Rags wanted by Hale & Nusslely.

Dr. CONSUMPTION, on Sunday night, Mrs. Mary Eliza Taylor, daughter of Dayins Tacker, of Hall's Gap.

THE next session of the Christian College at Hartselle will be under the charge of J. R. Danley, of Louisville, assisted by Miss Amanda Cook, with Miss Anna Cook as Music Teacher. We congratulate that community on this excellent arrangement. Mr. Danley is a gentleman of fine education and accomplishments, and his students are fully as well known there as those at the school. We hope and believe that the school will be liberally and cheerfully patronized.

LUSCIO—Fleming Mall, Reynolds, was adjudged a lunatic and ordered to the Asylum on Wednesday. He showed a sign of losing his mind till last Sunday, when he was seized with a religious frenzy while attending a meeting at Providence Church, conducted by Elder Vanhook and Boggs, and proclaimed that he had been commissioned by Christ to save sinners.

He would attack a sinner, and if he refused to be seated right on the spot, he would attempt to beat him into the hall, when he would glide with his minister step around the hall, while his bright and benevolent smile beams effusively upon the delinquent.

—I am constrained, Mr. Editor, in justice to modesty, humble uprightness and tried fidelity, to note the death, which occurred on Friday last, of Thelma, wife of Thales Brown (colored) of this place.

Many of your readers, especially in the West, will be deeply grieved to hear of the loss of such a young and promising young woman.

—Your autobiography of "Conrad Reiter," in last week's issue, was read with peculiar interest in this community. It has been our fortune to see Bob in the Chamber in by-gone days, and we predict a new sensation in Frankfort when he shall again glide with his minister step around the hall, while his bright and benevolent smile beams effusively upon the delinquent.
